

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 30, 2021

WRMCA OES Committee
2020 Driver of the Year, Roger Pollich
40-Year Veteran Driver Honored for Outstanding Performance

WRMCA OES Committee has selected Roger Pollich of Zignego Ready Mix, the 2020 Ready Mixed Concrete Delivery Professional Driver of the Year. Mr. Pollich was selected as the top driver from a group of outstanding applicants from across the state of Wisconsin. Mr. Pollich, whose home plant is located in West Allis, was honored for his career achievements, outstanding safety record, professionalism, driving competency and customer service skills. He has also trained drivers for numerous years and serves as a mentor for new drivers. His extraordinary record includes a forty-year career with family owned Zignego Ready Mix.

WRMCA also selected four runners-up, placed in categories based on yardage poured annually. The first category winner is 31-year veteran driver Douglas Dommer, from MCC., Inc, whose home plant is located in Bonduel. The second category winner is 22-year veteran mixer driver Stan Smith, from Zignego Ready Mix, whose home plant is in Sturtevant. The third category tied winner is 14-year veteran mixer driver Russ Walters, of Zignego Ready Mix, whose home plant is in Burke. The third category tied winner is 13-year veteran mixer driver Mark Monroe, of Zignego Ready Mix, whose home plant is in Johnson Creek. The fourth category winner is 9-year veteran mixer driver Al Cleveland, of Carew Concrete & Supply, Co., whose home plant is in Appleton.

The 2020 Driver of the Year winners will be honored at WRMCA's Board of Directors meeting held on May 13, 2021. Acuity Insurance is the exclusive sponsor of the WRMCA Driver of the Year program.